

Uncovering Corruption in Arbitration: Usage and Limitations of Red Flags or Other Indicators of Corruption

Stockholm, 10 March 2025

Registration

Join us for an insightful seminar on 10 March 2025, hosted by ICC Sweden, where leading international arbitration experts will delve into the intricacies of identification and assessment of corruption in arbitration disputes. This seminar will explore:

- Identifying Red Flags of Corruption: What are they?
- Practical Application: How should red flags of corruption be properly used?
- Establishing Limits: What are the limits of red flags in establishing a corrupt practice?

This event will feature an in-depth discussion on the newly published ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR document “Red Flags or Other Indicators of Corruption in International Arbitration”.

15.00-15:10 Welcome remarks

Henrik Blomqvist, Acting CEO & Secretary General, ICC Sweden
Aisha Nadar, Vice Chair, ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR

15:10-16:20 Usage and Limitations of Red Flags or Other Indicators of Corruption in Arbitration

Speakers:

Abdulhay Sayed, Sayed & Sayed, Switzerland
Klara Håstad, Advokatfirman Håstad, Sweden
Lucinda Low, Low & Kinneir Dispute Resolution, USA
Xavier Andrade, AVL Abogados, Ecuador

Moderator:

Polina Permyakova, Advokatfirman Delphi

16:20-16:30 Closing Remarks

Dr. Hélène van Lith, ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR, ICC Dispute Resolution Services

16:30-18:00 Networking reception

Date:

10 March 2025
15:00 – 18:00

Place:

Näringslivets Hus,
Storgatan 19, Stockholm

The number of places is limited

Sponsored by:

Delphi